Start counting your votes . . . and your friends. When Brianna Justice's hero, the famous celebrity chef Miss Delicious, speaks at her school and traces her own success back to being president of her fifth grade class, Brianna determines she must do the same. She just knows that becoming president of her class is the first step toward her own cupcake-baking empire! But when new student Jasmine Moon announces she is also running for president, Brianna learns that she may have more competition than she expected. Will Brianna be able to stick to her plan of working with her friends to win the election fairly? Or will she jump at the opportunity to steal votes from Jasmine by revealing an embarrassing secret? This hilarious, heartfelt novel will appeal to any reader with big dreams, and the determination to achieve them.

Jake remembers the terrible days in third grade when everbody thought he was the teachers' pet.

It's no ordinary Thursday for Marvin Redpost and his class... It's "hole day," and even Mrs. North and Principal McCabe are wearing their very worst clothes. It seemed like a fun idea that morning, but now they're expecting company. The president -- of the United States! -- is on his way. And there's no time to change! Marvin must do math on the blackboard with television cameras pointed at him. And the day is just beginning!

Thirteen-year old McKay is a talented baseball player, but as equally untalented when it comes to algebra. If he doesn't bring his grade up, his parents threaten to make him quit the team. His best friend Tony thinks the natural solution is for McKay to befriend Serena, a pretty girl in class, who also happens to get straight A's in algebra. Not only will that get McKay the tutor he desperately needs, but it will give Tony the chance to flirt with Serena's two best friends. Unfortunately, if McKay follows Tony's advice on how to "play the game," he might find himself in an even worse spot than when he was merely failing algebra. With a keen sense of wit, and more self-confidence than he gives himself credit for, McKay will keep readers alternately laughing and groaning as he is dragged kicking and screaming into the subtle (and often not so subtle) world of teen dating.

Our Revised for 2014-2015 TEKS 3rd Grade Math Test Prep for STAAR is an excellent resource to assess and manage student's understanding of concepts outlined in the State of Texas Assessments of Academic Readiness (STAAR) program. This resource is formatted into three sections: Diagnostic, Practice, and Assessment with multiple choice and open questions in each section. The material covered includes emphasis on Numerical Representations and Relationships problems to determine if student can demonstrate an understanding of how to represent and manipulate numbers and expressions. Additionally, emphasis is placed on Computations and Algebraic Relationships problems to determine students ability to demonstrate an understanding of how to perform operations and represent algebraic relationships. Geometry and Measurement problems are also covered to ensure students understand how to represent and apply geometry and measurement concepts. Finally, Data Analysis problems are covered to demonstrate students grasp of how to represent and analyze data. These standards are covered extensively by the practice problems. This book contains over 500 practice problems aligned to each TEKS Category. In addition the book contains an answer key to practice problems. Paperback: 298 double-sided pages Publisher: Teachers' Treasures, Inc. Language:English
